issue five. Winter 1992 -93

inside:

THIS ISSUE IS DEDICATED TO GRAFFITI. THOUGH EVERY CAN CONTROL IS, THIS ISSUE IS SHOWING THE FLICKS, THE ART, ONLY! NO INTERVIEWS, NO TALK JUST GRAFFITI!

To the 200 writers that purchased issue four at L.A's hip-hop shop; the bible page wasn't my idea. Hex in the name of religion- censored the naked lady featured in the Third Rail ad. Hex's reasoning was riddled with contradictions (he sells rap records that deface religion & women, he wouldn't expect me enclosing the issue in bags; insuring him not to see the ad) I explained that 80% of all censorship groups work in awe of religion & that these are the same organizations fighting GRAFFITI & that Graffiti should be the last right wing outlet. Regardless Hex & Skill tore out bible pages & stuck them over the lady. Ironically when Skill checked in the issue he looked threw it with me and made no mention of the lady, instead; hailed my efforts with Graffiti & offered pictures for future issues.

Can Control, AllCity Clothing, Third Rail, Tribal, Fuct, Top 2 Botm, Video Graf, ETC. ETC. ETC. WILL NOT SELL PRODUCT AT THE HIP-HOP SHOP.

P.S. though Hex says his store is L.A.'s first, in 1988 Chino opened "B-Boy Arts" a def store featuring: Can Control, live DJ's, air brushing, bombed walls Etc. You Can Learn From History
