22 BRONX

Is it or isn't it graf? A goose has a long neck but does that make it a giraffe?

I like some of the stuff done on canvas - mostly the ones with letters. Other than that the only thing the canvas' have in common with graf is x-writers did them, and they used spray.

I helped my mom paint a metal chair with spray once, but I didn't call that graf...

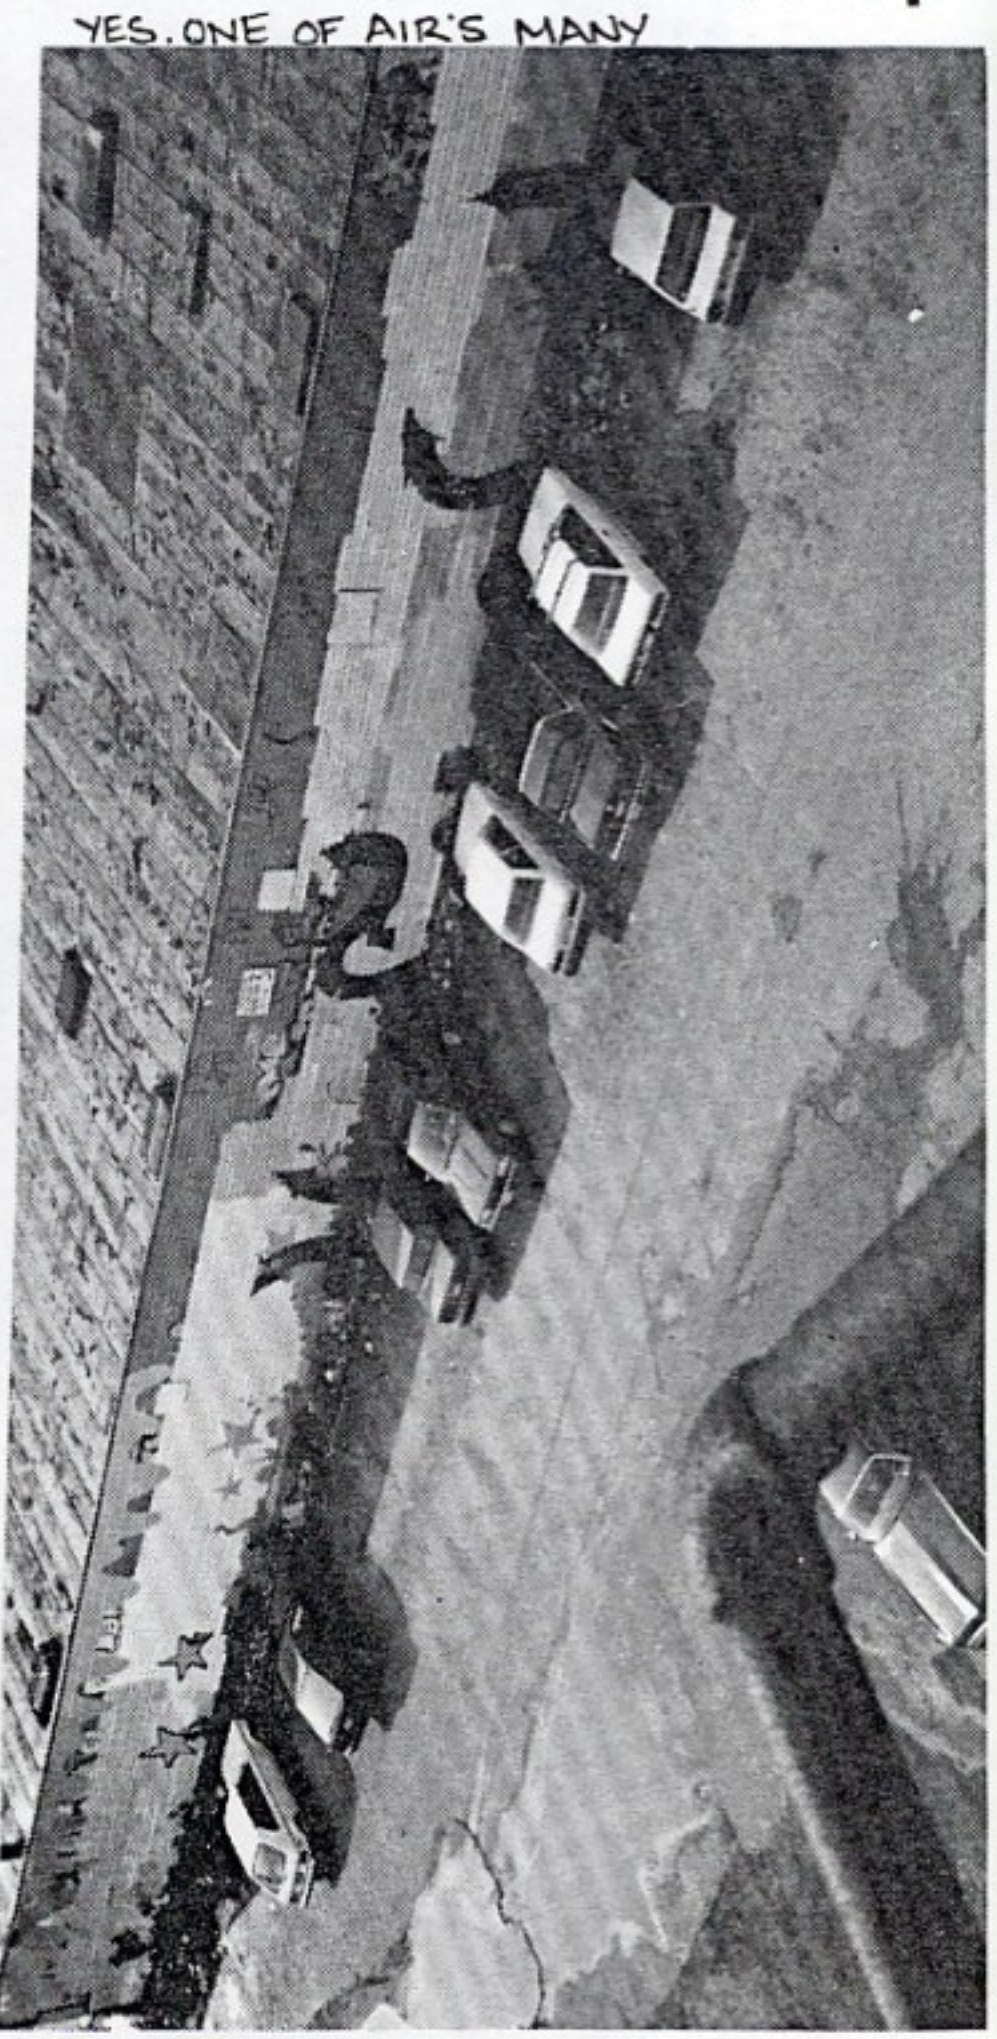

As far as it being art...

CHICAGO:

What CHICAGO's graf scene lacks in numbers is more than made up for with heart.

It's cop scene, like Germany's is real wild however. On well travelled lines vandal cops ride the trains looking for writers. A casual conversation about graf can get you searched and even arrested. Cops planting markers on kids is not uncommon. Sometimes they'll even ask to see your hands and pour shoe polish on 'em! Then, of course, you've earned the honor of being escorted downtown...

There are SO many pluses though, you can almost forget the cops, almost.

Racking for instance. Chicago still has ALOT of colors

TOP-TO-BOTTOM (in a clockwise motion)... 1. tunnel bombing with the DTE crew in Chicago. 2. exploring tunnels. 3. artck at work while da CTA is asleep. 4. DZINE af. of the permission wall crew. wake up - trains are the move!!!
